Pastoral Corner

Beloved Brethren,

Welcome to March; our Month of Jubilation.

As we engage in the Jericho March in obedience and faith, every obstacle resisting your restoration shall crumble (Joshua 6:20).

In January, the Lord positioned us strategically through the 30-Day Prayer and Fasting, while in February, He gave us directions that starred our gifts and realigned our foundations.

So far, this year, "The Lord hath done great things for us" (Psalm 126:3). And He is not done yet (Philippians 1:6).

Now in this month of March, the Lord goes before us (Deuteronomy 31:8) in this season of TEQUMAH - Resurrection and Restoration. We war with prophecy (1 Timothy 1:18), realign with divine direction, and speak life into every feeble place.

What mountain stands before you? (Zechariah 4:7), what valley blocks your settlement? (Isaiah 40:4), what handwriting speaks against you? (Colossians 2:14)

Every mountain shall bow, crooked paths shall straighten (Isaiah 45:2) and delays shall become accelerations (Isaiah 60:22).

Victory is certain as your testimony is next.

Remain blessed!

Leaders and Ministers Retreat 2026

Called, Anointed and Impactful

God's plan for PPN this year, is a vision we have to write in our minds and run with. In February, PPN held a Retreat, themed 'Called, Anointed and Impactful', to help Leaders and Ministers divinely align with and run with the Prophecy for the year, Restored 2026.

To the glory of God, the teachings, prayers and impartations led by Apostle I. D. Lawon, Pastor Pre Ovia, and, our dear Pastor Henry Onyirioha were spiritually edifying.

At the welcome message, Pastor Henry spoke about the essence of the retreat. He told the attendees that being at the retreat implies that they have been called. But urged that to be anointed participants have to go beyond their presence, to become partakers by ensuring that they are educated, are exposed, have an encounter and leave with an experience, that will make them impactful.

Counselling & Prayer

Question & Answer

Did you know that being a Minister does not exempt you from hidden curses that you have not been delivered from (1 Kings 2:26 & 27) ? and a minister over a flock is a target of the enemy? (Zechariah 13:7). We learnt at the retreat, of the need to be mindful of the existence and power of curses, and deal with them so that they do not work against us.

Music Ministration

We were told that we need the Refiner's fire, so that when we walk through any fire, we are not burnt. We were encouraged to keep the fire burning (Leviticus 6:12 & 13), as a life without fire only speaks but a life with fire commands result.

We were charged not to limit ourselves, but to seek more of the Refiner's fire no matter our current level (Isaiah 6: 6 & 7), to seek for the activation of dormant spiritual gifts in us (1 Timothy 1:6 & 7) and to learn from 3 dimensions: from nature, from those that have gone before us and from Jesus (Matthew 11:29).

As the retreat drew to a close, "Sustain and improve, or be a dinosaur" and "Meet with God before meeting with men" were succinct reminders for us to sustain and increase fire obtained from the retreat (Revelations 3:11),

Impartation

Testimony Time

After all, God daily loads us with benefits (Psalm 68:19).

Also, to realise that we are equipped to make ourselves available for the harvest (Matthew 9:37-38). However, as we make ourselves available, we must meet with God first, because victory is of the Lord (1 Corinthians 15:57).

Intentional Parenting

Highlights from one of the speakers on dispensing our parental responsibilities during the 3-day Parents Programme themed, Intentional Parenting.

Parenting Posture for Today

Coach Funmi, is dedicated to raising children who reflect and replicate the image of God.

She compared today's world, to the Babylon captivity when there was a deliberate design to reshape the identity of the children of Israel. They were removed from their homes, renamed, re-educated, and brainwashed into the customs of the Babylonians. Satan is using the same tactics now. Today, children are physically in our homes, but their minds, attention and emotions are captured online, where morality is being redefined (Isaiah 5:20). Children are desensitised, given a new name, a new identity, and a different mind-set. They are under peer pressure, and are being educated with new sexual ideologies contrary to Christian beliefs.

With this battle we face, "what should intentional parenting look like?" Her response highlights the posture that we must take as today's parents, and she gave the following advice:

1. Establish your family on clear values – "If you don't define your values, culture will define them for you."
2. Guard the identity of your children - What do your children know themselves to be?
3. Family discipleship – "Discipling our children cannot be outsourced". Not even to Sunday school teachers.
4. Educate yourself – Parenting principles are the same over time, but strategies are different. (Prov. 22:6; Eccl. 10:10).
5. Avoid name calling – Name calling does not shape character, rather, it strips children of self-esteem.
6. Correct in private and celebrate publicly – Do not exaggerate the bad and ignore the good things.
7. Use the authoritative parenting style – Not authoritarian or permissive styles. Be kind, but enforce boundaries.
8. Protect the online environment of your home – Teach media literacy, and monitor or filter contents.
9. Be prophetically vigilant – Track digital footprints and emotional shifts.
10. Sex education – Sex education is a non- negotiable conversation. "If you don't discuss sex with your children, the culture will teach them the wrong thing".

The Season of TEQUMAH

Tequmah means resurrection, restoration, and standing up again after a fall.

This is the season God commands life into places that looked buried, forgotten, and finished.

What died will live again; dreams, opportunities, businesses, relationships, spiritual fires including the dead shall resurrect.

Tequmah calls forth life from dryness, strength from weakness and glory from ashes. It is the season, God is saying:

"I am not done with you."

What looked like a burial was only a preparation for resurrection. What looked like an ending was the beginning of a greater story.

Get ready! This is your rising and restoration season.

When God is done, people will look at you and say:

"Only God could have done this."

Welcome to THE TEQUMAH SEASON.

TEQUMAH starts 7th of March 2026
