Pastoral Corner

Welcome to November, your month of new beginnings. We believe you have been wonderfully blessed as a result of the divine visitations in PPN this year. But we cannot fully experience all of God. O! the depths of God are unsearchable (Romans 11:33). God desires to reveal more of Himself to us this season. God told the Israelites to “go forward”, and as they obeyed, they experienced a God who could part the Red Sea.

God is interested in our enablement, our emergence, our elevation, our enthronement, and our expansion, even beyond our wildest dreams. God is saying to us in PPN now, that He has ushered us into a new path, that leads to a new season and, He will do a new thing for us (Isaiah 43:19).

Do not be left behind. Come with us, and be part of what God is doing! Join the upcoming programmes scheduled for the remaining part of the year 2025, because new doors will be opening to us. All the missed opportunities and losses since the beginning of the year will be rolled away, and turned around into massive breathtaking breakthroughs.

By the outpouring rain of the Holy Spirit, dryness will be converted to fruitfulness, in Jesus name. Amen!

Music Ministration at the PPN Annual Healing and Deliverance Conference

Birmingham 2025

Sound of Heaven... Song of Increase

The Eternal Symphony

Heaven overflows with
 The eternal symphony of praise
 Holy is the Lord God Almighty (Rev. 4:8)
 As we join in singing, God comes (Psalm 22:3)

The Power of Praise

Our songs, not just melody, but ministry
 God responds, to restore, and refresh
 Bringing down His glory and power to
 Win battles and open doors (Acts 16:25-26).

The Song of Increase

In true worship, God pours His rain
 As praise rises, heaven releases increase.
 Let us sing and clap and dance
 So earth will yield its increase (Psalm 67:6).

Heaven Touched Earth

At PPN Birmingham Conference 2025,
 Hands raised in worship, spirits blazed in praise
 To the melody from the choir; and the river of God's Mercy brought blessings (Psalm 46:4).

A Call to Deeper Worship

In this season of 'A New Thing' (Isaiah 43:19)
 Let the testimonies of our music ministers
 Stir us to deeper worship and praise
 Heaven will open, and God will do New Things.

A Spiritual Uplifting at the Conference - Sis. Mary Kigozi

I had a spiritual uplifting experience and life-changing encounter at the Conference. Serving in the choir made it even more special to me. I had not ministered in songs for some time, and I thank God for the opportunity. It was the first time all Music Team members worked together but, we were united and had one mind. By God's grace, the ministration was glorious. To all the Music Ministers, God bless you.

Birmingham 2025: Awesome Experience - Sis. Elizabeth Olanloye

My experience ministering in the choir at the Birmingham conference was awesome. I've not seen it in that fashion before. It was a privilege to use my gift for God's glory, and the edification of His church. Thanks to Pastor Henry, Bro. Gogo, and members of the Team. PPN Choir will continue to move from glory to glory, for greater impact in God's Kingdom in Jesus name, AMEN. Though choir practice were online and brief, God took control and moved in all the ministrations. To God be the glory!

My testimony: There was a spiritual blessing I've been praying for in particular for the Power of the Lord upon my life. I didn't discuss it with anyone, but during one of the evening revival sessions, the Guest Minister spoke to me specifically on it. Praise the Lord! kingdom service really pays.

My Birmingham Experience: Touched and Stirred for Greater Impact - Sis. Titi Akinjomo

Ministering in songs at the PPN Conference is a privilege I cannot take for granted. I am grateful. From online rehearsals to Prayers, to unity of spirit within the Music Team, everything was beautifully orchestrated by God; and participants were blessed through the music ministrations. I experienced a Kairos moment when the guest minister declared that "There is somebody here the Lord is touching." At that moment, I felt the tangible touch of God. It kindled a fire within me; and I was stirred to minister with greater intensity. I felt great joy to be a vessel in God's hand.

This divine awakening took my prayer life to a new dimension. I would gladly serve again in future. If you feel drawn to music, and are willing, please come join the team! It's a glorious experience!

Thanks to Brother Gogo who coordinated the Music Team, and thank you Pastor Henry for believing in the Team.

My husband and I, always seek opportunities for kingdom service. Thankfully, apart from the choir, we served in other areas. I'm happy I didn't just attend, but privileged to serve in a way that connected me to the move of the Holy Spirit. Our daughter attended the children's class and had a Bible StoryBook as a take-home gift. She says "Thank you PPN".

During a word ministration, I fell under power. By end of the conference, I was transformed. With recharged faith, and passion for service, I look forward to the 2026 Conference.

A Refreshing and Transformative Experience

- Sis. Grace Obi

Attending the Birmingham Conference was a truly refreshing and transformative experience. Every rehearsal and ministration taught me that ministering in the choir was more than just singing or performance; it was an opportunity for obedience, surrender, service, true worship and the witness of God's powerful presence. Being my first time ministering publicly in the choir, it was such a humbling and faith-stretching experience. Initially, I felt a bit nervous about stepping forward, but I sensed a gentle nudge from God to volunteer and trust Him completely. I prayed for boldness and grace, and He truly supplied both. I prepared, not just vocally but spiritually, as God reminded me that it is His presence that makes the difference. Standing there to minister for the first time felt like stepping into a new season. It is a privilege I do not take lightly, and one I hope to continue walking in as He leads.

Beyond the joy of singing, God met me in a personal way. A word of prophecy came for me, that affirmed His plans for me. It reminded me that God sees and knows each of us intimately. I left the conference renewed, encouraged, grateful for the fellowship, with strengthened faith, and happy to be part of what God is doing through PPN. It is a weekend I will never forget.

My Experience at the Birmingham Healing and Deliverance Conference 2025

- Bro. Ayomikun Adegbite

Attending the Birmingham Healing and Deliverance Conference was a deeply refreshing and life-transforming experience for me and my family - my wife, our daughter, and my mother, who was visiting. We all encountered God in a tangible way over those three powerful days.

I had the privilege of serving in the music department, playing the keyboard. From the start, each session carried a unique atmosphere of worship, power, and God's presence. It felt as though heaven was open over Birmingham. The unity among the worship team and the deep hunger of the congregation made every moment on the keyboard more than just music; it was pure ministry.

My PPN Conference Testimony
- A Fire That Still Burns

My first-ever PPN conference was a journey I began with expectations for a Spectacular encounter and a new chapter in my faith. When informed I would serve in the music team, specifically on the keyboard, my anticipation deepened. It felt like a divine assignment, and I knew I couldn't rely on my own strength. I began to pray for God's intervention.

The journey, however, faced an immediate challenge of leave denial. I held onto my faith, and miraculously, the same boss who had said NO, granted my leave. A miracle that affirmed God's hand, and fuelled my preparations.

Working with the other choristers was wonderful. With same purpose, we prepared not just rehearsing physically, but spiritually praying. It was profound, humbling, and electrifying to be at the keyboard, knowing I was a vessel leading God's people into worship. So grateful to be used by God in that capacity. As we ministered at the PPN Birmingham conference, I felt God's overwhelming presence. The atmosphere shifted, and God moved, healed and touched lives.

Truthfully, my life and that of my family have not remained the same. The fire ignited at that conference is still burning brightly within us. My advice on service is, don't underestimate the power of preparation, spiritually and physically. As you pour yourself out in service, He fills you up in unimaginable ways.

Bro. Bunmi Ogunsiji

Beyond the worship, the Word, delivered with divine authority, came alive in ways that stirred my spirit. People were healed and delivered before my very eyes; Burdens were lifted, and hearts revived.

My mother, who had been trusting God for renewed strength and peace of mind, testified of a calmness and vitality she hadn't felt in a long time. Watching her worship with such joy was, for me, one of the most powerful moments. The atmosphere rekindled my faith and expanded my understanding of Kingdom service.

I left Birmingham with a renewed sense of purpose, and a burning desire for God's presence and to see Him move even more in my life, family, and Ministry. I'm truly grateful to God and to Prayer Power Network. It was, indeed, a conference of divine visitation, encounter and destiny realignment.
